About Us

The College	Opened in 1883 by the then Prince of Wales, the Royal College of Music (RCM) is a world-leading music conservatoire with a prestigious history and contemporary outlook. The RCM is a vibrant community of talented and open-minded musicians, with over 900 students from more than 50 countries studying at undergraduate, masters or doctoral level in the Senior College throughout the week and 300 students on a Saturday in the Junior Department. Former students of the RCM hold key roles in music and the arts in all parts of the world - as performers, teachers, composers, conductors and amateurs. The RCM was ranked as the global top institution for Performing Arts in the 2022 QS World University Rankings by subject.
Staff	The College has over 250 members of professorial (teaching) staff and over 100 teachers in the Junior Department - the majority of whom are busy professionals with worldwide reputations, who include teaching among the various musical activities that they regularly undertake. Their work, and the work of the College as a whole, is supported by a team of over one hundred administrative staff.
Location	The RCM benefits from its particular location in South Kensington - one of the most attractive and interesting parts of central London. The area is well-served by public transport: South Kensington tube station is within ten minutes' walk; several bus routes pass the Royal Albert Hall. Kensington Gardens and the renowned museums of Exhibition Road, the Natural History Museum, the Victoria & Albert Museum and the Science Museum, are only a short walk away; Imperial College of Science, Technology & Medicine is next door; the Royal College of Art and the Royal Albert Hall are just across the road. The area, known originally as Albertopolis, emerged as a location for national institutions in the arts and sciences after the Great Exhibition of 1851 largely because of the enthusiasm of Prince Albert. Relationships with neighbouring institutions are friendly and supportive.

Department

The Facilities department has a wide remit which includes responsibility for reception, front of house, H&S, portage, catering, cleaning, insurance, security and safety among other things, and for providing general assistance to ensure the smooth running of all activities. Every day members of the team deal with a wide range of requests and enquiries. They need to have a positive outlook and a welcoming manner and a "customer oriented" approach. Members of the team need to collaborate with other members of the RCM to ensure that first class standards are maintained in all areas of the RCM's work. The RCM's main building is Grade II listed.

The Estates department provides a key function in supporting the College's core business. It is responsible for all hard and soft facilities management services, all aspects of property management, front of house, project management and delivery and all aspects of Health, Safety and Environment.

The Royal College of Music is an Equal Opportunities employer. The College is a non-smoking environment.
